Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

A good many people poke fun at the Dies committee and its investigation of un-American activities. There is undoubtedly much that the committee might have omitted in its probing, which at times savored of rumor mongering. However despite its shortcomings, we will call attention to two achievements.

The first is its censure, backed up by abundant testimony of Governor Murphy's conduct in the labor wars of Michigan. It has been proved conclusively that he virtually nullified court orders in order to avoid, as he said, bloodshed. We have pointed out in these columns time and again that law enforcement is more important than spilling blood. If this philosophy of government were carried to its logical and silly conclusion, no man attempting murder would suffer punishment. Law enforcement all along the line entails bloodshed. In prohibition days many an officer was killed. Many a bootlegger died in his boots. Bloodshed is a frequent incident in law enforcement. When a labor organization or an employer organization defies the law, resisting large forces to make their defiance good, it should be the business of the state to call out the troops to see that neither one violates the law. Murphy refused to do this and, incidentally his refusal did not prevent bloodshed. Whatever President Roosevelt has said or may say in extenuation of Murphy's paltering, does not change the facts that the Dies committee established and censured.

The second achievement is the committee's success in calling national attention to organizations of fascism and communism. That this has been a hit or miss kind of investigation is of course to be deplored. The committee has used a shotgun instead of a rifle. We would prefer one of two bulls-eyes to the general scatter-gun performance which hits multitudes rather than the few leaders of organizations that are subversive to our government. However, the committee has been definite in its charges against Harry Bridges and other communists closely associated with the CIO. The testimony of Homer Martin, head of the CIO auto workers, though reluctantly given, was thoroughly damning. As a result of the Dies committee's activities we have a much more comprehensive picture of both fascist and communistic organizations than we have had before, and this, after discounting all bird calls that testified before that body.

Commentators have complained that un-Americanism is too loosely defined. What is un-American in one man's mind is something quite different in another's. Here is one definition, however, that we believe most thoughtful citizens can accept. That is: un-Americanism is any kind of social or political activity which is subversive of democratic principles as expressed in the Constitution of the United States.

As a result of its four months of investigation the Dies committee is preparing to make the following recommendations to Congress meeting next week:

1. Stricter immigrations laws, with requirements that aliens entering the country say whether they believe in the American form of government.

2. Strict enforcement of the deportation laws.

3. Regulations that organizations shown conclusively to be un-American, file with the government an accounting of their finances, activities, and directors.

4. Outlawing of all such organizations as soon as possible.

5. Regulations that persons joining political organizations use their real names and that lists of such names be available to the government for inspection.

The Committee has accomplished much in exposing anti-American and un-American activities. There is still much work for it to do. Congress should promptly furnish it additional funds.

Judge Tuttle To Sit On Appellate Bench

Judge Raglan Tuttle of Nevada County's superior court was yesterday appointed by Governor Frank Merriam to the Third District Court of Appeals to finish out the unexpired term of the late Justice Plummer. For some time it had been surmised that Judge Tuttle would receive this honor. The telegram to the Nevada City Nugget announcing the appointment came from Senator Jerry Seawell last evening. The many friends of Judge Tuttle rejoiced that the governor has promoted him to the higher court, though grieving that in all probability he and his family will soon make their residence in Sacramento.

The resolution unanimously adopted by the Nevada County Bar endorsing Judge Tuttle undoubtedly had its influence upon the governor's action.

Judge Tuttle was appointed to the Superior Court in Nevada County by Governor Richardson following the resignation of Judge George L. Jones who resigned to go into the banking business. In his position on the Court of Appeals Judge Tuttle will receive a salary of $10,000 annually. His term in office, to fill the unexpired term of Justice Plummer, who was re-elected in 1934, will run to January 1, 1947. Justices of the Appellate Court are elected for 12-year terms. The other Justices on the court are John A. Pullen of Sacramento and Rolfe L. Thompson of Santa Rosa.

In the Appellate Court in Sacramento tomorrow there will be a memorial service for the late Justice Plummer. It is expected that Judge (now Justice) Tuttle will participate in this service.

In view of the fact that Judge Tuttle had often been chosen to sit with the Appellate Court in the absence or sickness of its regular members and had participated in approximately 180 decisions rendered by that body, it would seem that his selection to fill the present vacancy was wholly logical.

He has often been selected by the State Judicial Council to sit in notable civil and criminal trials, some of which have attracted state wide attention. He presided, for instance, at the trial of the dynamiters, who were apprehended while enroute to blow up Standard Oil properties in the San Joaquin valley. Attempts to secure a reversal of his rulings and judgment in that case, by appeal to higher state and federal courts, have been defeated all along the line.

JEFFORD & SON ON PROBATION FOR TWO YEARS

The State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers has handed down a decision in the case of W. F. Jefford & Son's Funeral Home in Grass Valley, charged with improper and illegal treatment of a body shipped from Grass Valley to a town in Nebraska.

Jefford & Son must close for five days and will remain on probation for two years. The hearing early this year was the third which Jefford & Son have faced before the State Board.

Evidence was introduced to show that Jefford & Son had shipped a body to Nebraska, practically unclothed, and in a container without metal lining.

W. R. Jefford, head of the firm, was elected to the office of county coroner, four years ago. Following his defeat for re-election to the office last month, he resigned the office and A. M. Homles, former coroner and successful candidate against Jefford was appointed to fill out the remainder of Jefford's term of office.

SWEETLAND VOTE FOR SCHOOL DIST. N. C. ANNEXATION

The election held in the Sweetland school house on Tuesday, December 27 to decide whether or not the Sweetland school district should be annexed to the Nevada City Unified school district carried. The vote was 15 in favor of annexation and five against. The judges were: Frank S. Wood, E. C. Peters, Miss Ursula Reader.

This is a move that will greatly further the best educational interests of the school pupils and is recommended by the state department of education, by the Nevada County Board of Education and in its current report by the county grand jury. Sweetland will maintain its elementary district.

ROY GARDNER'S HOME DESTROYED

The old Costa home beyond the Thomas Coan ranch on the Downieville highway recently purchased by Roy Gardner was burned to the ground about three o'clock Christmas morning. Leslie Orzalli, who was accompanying a young lady to her home at North San Juan from a dance passed the house at about 3 o'clock and saw no fire. He returned in less than an hour and saw the south side of the house in flames. Having heard Gardner was a little hard of hearing he went to the front door, knocked and called, finally kicking in the door, but it was a mass of smoke and he could not enter. He went to a window on the north and knocked it in. Glancing in he saw that no one was in the bed. Mrs. Al Garesio, who was also attending the dance it is stated, passed the house about the time Orzalli returned and summoned her husband from their home nearby. When Orzalli saw he could not save the house he went to work on the garage. Two huge water tanks stood nearby and he kept throwing water on the building as Garesio arrived and he also helped to save the garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Edwards, caretaker for Gardner, live in a house not far away and Mrs. Edwards saw the blaze and woke her husband. They came to the fire also and at about that time the house was a flaming mass.

Roy Gardner left during the latter part of the week to spend Christmas with friends in San Francisco and returned to his newly acquired home on Tuesday.

It is stated there were a number of treasured possessions and curios of Mr. Gardner's in the house which was destroyed by the fire.

Every peace officer in Nevada County yesterday received a letter from District Attorney Vernon Stoll stating that slot machines must be abolished throughout the county at once. The county as a unit must be clear of slot machines. In a recent grand jury investigation it was recommended the legal authorities take the matter in hand.

Mrs. Margaret Bosworth received the sad news of the passing of her aunt, Mrs. J. McAlister Aitken, wife of a retired army officer. Burial took place in the Presidio Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cain and family spent Christmas in Arbuckle with relatives. There were thirty seven present for a happy reunion.

SLOT MACHINES MUST GO, SAYS DIST. ATTORNEY

In a circular letter addressed to all peace officers in the county yesterday, District Attorney Vernon Stoll admonished them they must arrest all those who have slot machines in their premises. He called their attention to the fact that they themselves are liable to arrest for misdemeanor if they fail in their duty.

The District Attorney's letter follows:

To all Peace Officers of Nevada County:

Gentlemen:

Complaints have been made to the District Attorney's office that slot machines are again prevalent in Nevada County, and my investigations indicate that these complaints are not without substantial foundation.

The existence of this condition is in contravention of Section 330a of the Penal Code of the State of California, and I wish to inform you that according to Section 335 of the Penal Code, it is a misdemeanor for any peace officer to fail to inform against or fail to prosecute any violator of Section 330a.

I therefore, as District Attorney of Nevada County, and in accordance with the above designated sections, advise you as peace officers of Nevada County and the municipalities therein situate, to immediately take steps to rectify this situation and hereafter prevent its recurrence.

It is understood that you have the fullest cooperation of this office in the prosecution of violations of these sections.

Sincerely yours,
VERNON STOLL,
District Attorney of Nevada County.

CC: C. J. Tobiassen,
Garfield Robson,
Ben Jenkins,
Henry Prisk,
William Jeffery,
William Bottcher,
U. S. Webb.

Chief of Police Garfield Robson, under whose regime in Nevada City no slot machines are permitted to operate, sent the following reply:

Mr. Vernon Stoll, District Attorney, Nevada City, California.

Dear Mr. Stoll:

I am in receipt of your letter under the heading, "To all Peace Officers of Nevada County."

The statements you make therein, I know to be facts, and I commend you for the courage of your convictions in this matter, and pledge you the support of this office.

SHERIFF SAYS HE NEEDS MORE PAID DEPUTIES

Regarding two recommendations of the grand jury pertaining to the conduct of the sheriff's office, one that there shoud be a deputy at the office night and day, and the other that slot machines should be suppressed in Nevada county instead of running wide open as is now the case in all parts of the county except in Nevada City, Sheriff Tobiassen refused to comment on the latter censure, but regarding the recommendation of keeping a deputy in the office for four hours he said:

"This is the only county in the state of anything like the population we have in which the sheriff is allowed but two deputies. In Madera county with 16,000 population the sheriff has five deputies. In Glenn county with 13,000 population the sheriff has seven deputies. In my four years in office we have had almost as many prisoners in the jail as for the preceding 16 years. The total of my four years term lacks only 70 of the total number of prisoners registered in the jail during the sixteen years prior to 1934. This office is badly in need of a jailer."

Grand Jury Hits Slot Machines and County Road Management

The county grand jury, adjourning Wednesday, submitted its report to Judge Raglan Tuttle. The report censures jail conditions at Truckee, denounces the "wide open" condition under which slot machines are operated throughout the county except in Nevada City and finds the road administration wasteful. The report commends the conduct of the superior judge, the sheriff and district attorney in their courageous stand for enforcement of the law.

The jury described the condition of the county jail at Truckee as "deplorable", the report stating it is "unsanitary, has filthy bedding, and unless this condition is corrected at once we recommend that the jail be closed until put into condition so that human beings can be placed therein. At the present time Judge Smith of Truckee refuses to place a prisoner in this jail."

The jury stated that the law against slot machines was being openly violated throughout the county, Nevada City being excepted, and recommended that the peace officers, district attorney and sheriff, eliminate the evil.

Criticizing the action of the county superintendent of schools in dropping the services of a nurse in the rural schools, the jury said the salary of the nurse was paid out of the state rural supervision fund. It pointed out there were sufficient funds on hand to carry out this work. Discontinuance of the service, the jury said, would lead to a drop in attendance and the loss to the rural children of health supervision and the free follow up work by the state dental and medical clinics.

The methods of burial of deceased county hospital inmates came in for criticism by the grand jury. The jury recommended that instead of burying the destitute dead in the potters field with a number only above the grave, the county allow $50 to a regular undertaker for the service. "If indigents are given a decent burial," the report asked, "why not residents of the county, who may have been tax payers for years?"

The grand jury recommended that in administering the old age pensions the assessed valuation of property owned by pensioners be reduced and the county take a lien thereon, and that the responsibility for the support of the needy aged be shifted to responsible children who are able to contribute. Increased aid to total invalids was advised, and discontinuance for cause of aid to aged recommended where they were completely unable to spend the money for their own good.

It was recommended that a deputy sheriff be kept in the sheriff's office all twenty four hours, ready to answer calls at all times.

County rural school consolidation was favored and the formation of a union high school district recommended.

The report revealed that the total cost of altering and modernizing the county court house was $185,000.

The grand jury's report on county road expenditures was as follows:

TOO MUCH ROAD EQUIPMENT

In round numbers, exclusive of the amount spent for bridges and culverts, $82,000 was spent on the reconstruction and upkeep of Nevada county roads during the fiscal year 1937-38, and about $3,000 more than this amount is allowed in the budget for this year for the same purpose. Twenty two thousand, five hundred dollars of this was capital expense for the purchase of new equipment, leaving $59,500 to be spent on the roads for wages and supplies, or about $124.00 per mile of road.

In the opinion of the committee, $22,500 for equipment is altogether too large in proportion to the total amount spent, and is the direct result of dividing the county into five districts with a supervisor responsible for each. This system worked well when most of the work was done by hand, but the result now is that expensive road machinery is duplicated and lies idle half the time, so that each supervisor can have the machine he needs when he wants to use it. A great deal more can be accomplished with new and modern equipment than with the best that could be obtained a few years ago. Therefore, when one district gets a new road machine which does a lot of work in a short time, the other districts are at a disadvantage until they each have one also.

With one man responsible for all the roads in the county instead of five, the road machinery could be kept in operation up in the mountains during the summer and in the lower part of the county during the winter, with the result that there would be a smaller capital investment on which to pay interest, and machinery would not become obsolete before it was worn out.

In Yuba county one man is in charge of all the roads, and they are kept in better condition for less money than in Nevada county. The following figures are given for comparison.

Total spent, excluding bridges and culverts, Nevada county $81,969; Yuba county $87,585.

Miles of county road, Nevada county $430; Yuba county $750.

Spent on roads, Nevada county, $59,492; Yuba county $81,404.

Spent per mile, Nevada County, $124; Yuba county, $107.50.

Spent on equipment, Nevada county, $22,477; Yuba county, $6,181.

Spent on equipment per mile, Nevada county, $46.80; Yuba county, $8.24.

Nevada county spent 27½ per cent of the total for equipment, and Yuba county 7.67 per cent. In the fiscal year 1936-37 Nevada county spent 26 per cent for equipment in 1935-36, 30 per cent, so for the last three years about $20,000 a year has been spent for road machinery and about $55,000 a year in using it. From this it will be seen that the county could employ one man at a salary of $3,000 a year or more, continue to pay the five supervisors the same amount they are receiving now, and have better roads for the same total expenditure.

Considering the salaries that they receive, the supervisors cannot be expected to spend all their time working for the county, nevertheless the roads should be looked after all the time, and it should be a full time job to spend $87,000 a year to the best advantage.

The committee recommends that the Board of Supervisors appoint one man at an adequate salary to be responsible for all the county roads.

ROY BURTON IS ARRESTED FOR HIGH GRADING

Roy Burton, 46, of Nevada City, was arrested yesterday by John Bongard, high-grade investigator for the state. Burton was arrested on three counts in falsifying records of a licensed gold buyer. Bongard also said that within the last year Robert Burton has sold $21,000 worth of high-grade gold to gold buyers. Bongard stated others were involved in the same case and names will be presented to the federal grand jury for consideration. Burton is charged with the offense under the state law and he will be tried here.

Prophet With Honor

True prophets are frequently without honor in their "own country" but in their own generation and generations to follow. A hundred and fifteen years ago, James Monroe, fifth President of the United States, made the pronouncement that any attempt by any European Power to invade, colonize or dominate any nation of the Western Hemisphere could not be viewed in "any other light than as a manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States."

Thus was born the Monroe Doctrine — born to bitter criticism. In 1823, Europe was months away by sailing vessel; transportation of formidable military forces across the Atlantic was exceedingly difficult. The Latin republics were not fearful of Europe—they feared the United States, the "Colussus of the North," and interpreted the Doctrine as a Yankee safeguard against competition in exploitation of the South American people. And so the memory of James Monroe came to be hated by them. Many Americans, too, were in opposition, convinced that the Doctrine placed upon us an unwise obligation that invited war.

But now, at the eighth Pan-American conference, at Lima, Peru, of representatives from 21 countries of both American continents—including Secretary of State Hull and Alfred M. Landon for the United States—the delegation of Venezuela announces to all governments: "The moment demands that we undertake examination of the problem of continental security—for America the moment has arrived to think and work continentally to unify its action and its methods of defense in the face of emergencies that might arise."

"The moment has arrived"!—the moment that James Monroe provisioned generations before invention of the 300-mile-an-hour bombing plane! The moment has arrived, also, when universal and grateful recognition should be accorded James Monroe as one of the greatest of American Presidents —a prophet to be honored not only in his own country but in all the nations of this hemisphere.—Contributed.

NATIONAL FOREST REVENUES GO TO COUNTIES

On Wednesday, California counties received $152,843 from the United States Forest Service to be used for road construction and school purposes. State Forester M. B. Pratt stated the amount represents the counties' shares, fixed on an acreage basis, from the sale of timber, rental of grazing lands and other sources of national forest revenue.

The schools in the various counties receive 25 per cent and the forest service gets 10 per cent for road construction within the national forests. The rest of the money is kept in miscellaneous expense account. This money is in lieu of taxes the counties would receive if the property were in private ownership.

Nevada County shares in a $10,577 allottment with sections of Tahoe, Lassen, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sierra and Yuba counties.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

By LORETTA JONES
(Age 12, Eighth Grade, French Corral School)

The stars that shine in Heaven,
That are so very dear—
Tell us all that Christmas time
Is slowly drawing near.

Those Christmas lights that always shine
Great peace and love impart;
And "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men,"
Will enter every heart.

The stars that shine in Heaven
May shed a glorious light—
But the Light that shines the brightest
Was Born on Christmas Night!

HUNT FISH AND TRAP! BE A FOREST RANGER!

Have you ever seen that advertisement—hunt, fish and trap—be a forest ranger? Well, there's something to it, says Assistant Forest Supervisor Norman L. Norris of the Sequoia National Forest with headquarters at Porterville.

Forest rangers have been doing it for years — hunting for a way to cram two days' work into one; fishing for an answer to some complicated land management problem, and trapping themselves by dropping in at the Forest Supervisor's office just in time for that gentleman to assign a particularly tough job he was wondering how to get done.

That's the way the forest ranger hunts, fishes and traps.

CREDIT FOR SANTA CLAUS?

A tiny little girl took a Christmas package to the Nevada City post office just before Christmas to send it away. She carefully reached up to the window and gave the clerk the package and her money. The clerk said it would take three more cents. The child said she didn't have it but, "we have been doing business here a long time, isn't my credit good?"

John Cronin, of the Nugget staff, spent the Christmas holidays in San Francisco returning home Tuesday. While there he visited his mother, Mrs. C. Ellison, and brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeLucchi.

JUST WONDERIN'

I wonder when young Thirty Nine
Comes marching over hill and down,
If he will pause on some tall peak
To view us with a puzzled frown,
And at the sound of blaring horns,
Of jongling bells and shouts of mirth,
Will he remark, to Father Time,
"Good gracious, dad, is this the earth?"

I wonder what little Thirty Nine will think of us when he lands upon our shores, midnight, January first; will he be startled and confused by our noisy demonstrations of joy—the clanging bells and glaring lights? No, if he is a normal youngster as we all hope he may prove to be, he will like everything—that is, unless his glimpses of those tragic lands beyond the sea, have saddened his heart and dulled his hilarious spirits.

I wonder about the fate of little Thirty Nine; he is so young, so very plastic; for weal or woe, so entirely under our influence and in our power. There will be need for much enlightened thinking and action in the months ahead, if we are to lead this bright New Year aright; but here in our midst, stands the golden candelabra, its ornate branches holding tall, majestic tapers ready for the lighting. It may be our privilege to touch each one with living fire; it may be our great joy to walk serenely in the paths their radiance illumes.

I wonder just how far the combined beams of reason, hope, faith, courage, tolerance, understanding, and righteousness would shine out across this naughty world of ours; perhaps even unto the borders of that realm of brotherly love and universal peace which now seems far, so very far away.

I wonder if we can keep the yuletide gleam and glow through all the months to come; can we so conduct ourselves toward this precious gift of a New Year, that when at length he returns to his father, Time, it will be with a record of achievement unblemished by dishonor; a record of noble conquests made and glorious victories won.

"Ring out the old, ring in the new,"
And keep the sunlight smiling through.
"Ring out the old, ring in the new,"
A glorious task for us to do.
To us there comes a brave New Year,
His clarion call is loud and clear.
Ring in new strength of mind and heart,
The sturdy will to do our part.
The courage high that takes a chance,
And moves on at the cry, "Advance!"
"Ring out the old, ring in the new,"
And keep the sunlight smiling through.

THREE AMATEUR RADIO OPERATORS LICENSED

Very few people realize that Nevada City has three licensed amateur radio operators. Their names and stations are, Angus Fox, Jr., W6QKU; Bill Tallmon, W6DVB; and Bill Neal, W6QPR. Tallman rates the letter D which means he has been in the work the longest period.

There are seven young men in the Nevada County Radio Club, four of them being in Grass Valley. Fox stated that the aim of the club is to try to rig up an emergency transmitter to be used in case of the electric lights going off as they did a year ago. Interesting cards are exchanged by the boys to confirm contacts with other stations.

CCC BOYS ENJOY CHRISTMAS TREE

The CCC camp boys in Camp Grass Valley enjoyed their Christmas party and tree Monday before Christmas as all leaves of absence were granted to take place Wednesday before the holiday. Each Monday is fundamentally a safety first meeting and after that there is a social time.

The boys decorated a most beautiful tree in their recreational hall and every one who felt like it bought small gifts and placed them in a box and they were placed on the tree. Each boy who purchased a present was given a gift from the tree.

There were about 20 boys left in camp Christmas day and they were treated to a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings. The boys were asked to take a holiday at Christmas time instead of New Years.

CHIMNEY FIRE

Max Solaro, engineer of the fire department, was called to the Phil Phariss home at an early hour yesterday morning to extinguish a chimney fire. He found the chimney blocked with soot and a gas pocket had formed under the mass. Solaro stated the house was full of smoke and had it not been a chimney in good condition it would have burst. After ramming a rod down the chimney the trouble was cleared up in a short time.

Miss Marjory Cook Weds William Gribben

Miss Marjory Cook and William Gribben were married at 9:30 Sunday morning, Christmas day in the Methodist church parsonage with Rev. H. H. Buckner performing the ceremony. Mrs. A. M. Shultz of Davis and Albert Gribben of Gold Flat, cousin and uncle respectively of the groom, acted as witnesses. Others present were Mrs. A. J. Cook, mother of the bride. Frank Mizner, and Mrs. A. M. Shultz.

After the ceremony all went to the bride's home where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The central feature was a large, beautifully decorated wedding cake, a gift from Kopps Bakery.

During the afternoon the wedding party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gribben on Gold Flat where a delicious wedding dinner was served. About twenty one were present for the repast.

The bride is of most pleasing personality and has been in the employ of the Kopps Bakery for some time. She was also with Mrs. Preston when she had the local newsstand, for several years.

The groom was reared on Gold Flat west of Nevada City and is well known for his sterling character. The best wishes of the entire community go out to this young couple. They will make their home in this city.

Miss Leah Tefft Weds John Willey

Miss Loah Jean Tefft, 19, of Nevada City became the bride of John Willey, 24, of Marysville at a ceremony performed in Reno, Nevada, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tefft, parents of the bride of Nevada City, and an aunt and cousin of San Francisco were present for the wedding service.

Miss Tefft has resided in this district for several years and has a wide circle of friends who wish her and her husband every happiness. The pair will reside in Marysville.

Miss Carrie Pyle to Wed Cecil E. Horner

A California-Ohio romance will culminate tomorrow afternoon when Cecil E. Horner, 22 years of age, of this city, will wed Miss Carrie Pyle, a recent arrival from Rayland, Ohio, where both bride and bride-groom formerly lived.

The wedding will take place in the parsonage of the Trinity Full Gospel church in Grass Valley, with either the Rev. George Thrane, or the Rev. Crosen officiating. Only relatives of the family will witness the ceremony.

The bride-groom is a member of the Nevada City Nugget's mechanical staff. He has resided in Nevada City for the past year and in that time has established a wide circle of friends. Miss Pyle, the bride-to-be, is 19 years old, a graduate of the Warren Consolidated high school, of charming personality and social accomplishment.

Miss Pyle accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Horner, Cecil Horner's parents recently from Ohio. She finds Nevada City people friendly and the city and its environs delightful. Following a honeymoon the young couple will reside at Adams street near the junction of Clay.

GOLDEN EMPIRE HOSTESSES

Plans for home coming week for Superior California at the Sacramento Golden Empire Centennial were taken up by Sacramento City officials Wednesday. Hostesses were chosen from the different counties. Lotta Bryant was selected for Nevada City while Edith B. Scott, was chosen from Grass Valley. The celebrations will last a week for each section.

ALL SET FOR ELKS NEW YEARS PARTY

Reservations have already been made and others are daily coming in for the Elks New Year's Eve dinner dance party to be held tomorrow night. The main lodge hall and dining room will be utilized and a committee has been busily engaged in placing novel decorations about the dining room where an excellent dinner is in prospect.

Miss Alice Hill of San Francisco will spend New Years and the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gates.

FOUR IN JAIL FOR POSSESSION OF VENISON

Four men were jailed Wednesday after pleading guilty to illegal possession of venison before Judge Miles Coughlin. They were: John L. Donaldson, 36, of Pennsylvania; Frank Adams, 33, Indiana; Lloyd Kelley, 40, Indiana; and William Dove, 38, Iowa. They are all comparatively recent arrivals in this section, and were engaged in mining on the South Yuba river.

In appearing before Judge Coughlin, sitting for Judge Mobley in the justice court, they were given 90 days in the county jail and $50 fines by the court. The fines were not paid. The arrests were made by Game Warden Earl Hiscox, who has mapped out a campaign against illegal deer slaying.

ROTARY HEARS STORY OF MILK

The Rotary club heard an interesting address yesterday by Dr. J. J. Frey, manager of the Golden State company, upon cows, dairies and the important role milk and milk products play in the diet.

The discovery of the food qualities of milk, Dr. Frey declared was probably prehistoric. It may have been discovered by the Arabs who put two and two together when the mother of one of their own children died, and left a little one. Seeing the young camel thrive on the mother camel's milk, the Arab tried to, and succeeded, in saving his own child by giving it camel's milk. It is also surmised that the Arabs discovered that milk of camels was increased by succulent herbage in the oases and abundant water. This supply they carried in skin bags and as it was borne on camel's back over the desert it sloshed back and forth and when opened they found there a ball of butter floating in the top.

Other containers used for carrying milk were the dried stomachs of animals slaughtered for food. Often enough rennet remained in the dried stomach to cause the milk to curdle, and thus in time one of the many varieties of cheese was developed.
